

Sea-faring novel gets Maritime christening

Published Saturday January 30th, 2010

F3

SPEAK UP EMAIL PRINT FACEBOOK DIGG DELICIOUS STUMBLE UPON

New Brunswick's storied age of sail came alive Jan. 15 at the Sussex Legion as Beth Powning launched her new historical novel, The Sea Captain's Wife. More than 500 people attended, enjoying chowder, historical displays and nautical art that complemented the reading and book signing. The author, family and friends even donned period dress for an extra element of authenticity. Ahoy!

ENLARGE PHOTO Photos by Káté Braydon

